

Content Contribution, Moderation & Approval (CMAP) Policy

Contents are contributed by various department in the institute. Head of the department moderate the website contents and finally approval is taken from Principal of the institute. Once the contents are approved by head of the institute, it is published on website by website committee.